

State Authorizations: Clinical Systems Leadership (RN-MSN)

Recent changes to the Higher Education Act (HEA) of 1965 include a series of regulations on individual state authorizations concerning distance education programs. The State Authorization Regulations require The University of Arizona and the College of Nursing to comply with individual state authorizations of our programs and thus we may not be able to offer programs in certain locations.

